What ails you my daughter dear
F#
your eyes are so dim
F#
have you had any sore sickness
F#
or yet been sleeping with a man

F#
I have not had any sore sickness
F#
but I know what s ailing me
F# B
I thinking of my own true love
F# B
he plows the raging sea
F# B
he plows the raging sea

F# G#m B C#
be he a lord or a duke or a knight
F# C# F#
or a man of wealth of fame
F# B
or is he one of my sailor lads
F# B
come tell me now his name

F# G#m B C#
he is no lord or a duke or knight
F# C# F#
or a man of wealth and fame
F# B
he is one of your sailor lads
F# B
and john barbour is his name

F# G#m B C#
now if John Barbour is his name
F# C# F#

a lowly sailor man is he

F# B

and if John Barbor is his name

F# B

then hanged he will be

F# B

than hanged he will be

F# G#m B C#

the king he calls his sailors all

F# C# F#

by one by two by three

F# B

John Barbour was the first he called

F# B

but the last came was he

F# G#m B C#

when he came a trippin down

F# C# F#

he was clothed in all in white

F# B

his hair were like the roses red

F# B

and his teeth were ivory brite

F# G#m B C#

he paid their wages with a smile

F# C# F#

when John Barbour he did see

F# B

if i was a woman if I were a man

F# B

then bedfellows we would be

F# G#m B C#

will you marry my daughter Jane

F# C# F#

and take her by the hand

F# B

will you come and dine with me

F# B

take charge of all my land

F# G#m B C#

I will marry your daughter Jane

F# C# F#

and I ll take her by the hand

F# B

I will come and dine with you

F# B

but to hell with all your lands

F#	G#m	B	C#
if you can give her one gold piece
F#	C#	F#
then I can give her three
F#		B
for I am bold John Barbour
F#		B
and I plow the raging sea
F#		B
I plow the raging sea
F#		B
I plow the raging sea
