[Verse 1]

D                  G          A
In every life, there lives a melody
          D                  A          D
In every heart, there hides a knife
          D                  G          A
Every soul shall seek its harmony
          D                  A          D
While every fist shall find a fight

[Chorus]

G                  D
And we live this life
          G                  D
Between wrong and right
          G                  Bm
And I feel so alive
          G  A
Toniii-iiight

[Verse 2]

Every dawn, a simple symphony
In every song, a broken line
In every day, a different destiny
In every love, there lives a lie

[Chorus]

[Verse 3]

And every star, with night falls back to life
And every fire will lose its light
Every tear, you ever shed will dry
While every smile
Will burn on
So
Bright

[Chorus]
