REPEAT THE OTHER CHORDS

Many a man has sold his soul for silver
Silver ain t worth nothing next to gold
Some believe that diamonds shine forever

Bm

E

But they offer little comfort when you re old

Can t take it with you when you re gone
Its the same end for the weak as for the strong
And if beauty is skin deep
Then why don t it come more cheap
And why can t you and I just get along

Chorus X2
