[Verse 1]

D G A D
He was born a sailors son,
G D A
Nothing came easy or free,
D G A D
He suffered the squalls, all the rises and falls,
G D A
And everything else in between.

[Pre-Chorus 1]

G A D Bm
But he says storms always fade after they ve had their way,
G A
They re never as bad as they seem.

[Chorus]

G A D Bm
As long as the rivers still run to the seas,
G A Bm
Hey lucky you lucky me,
G A D
Hey lucky you lucky me.

[Instrumental] (x1)

D, G, A, D
D, G, A

[Verse 2]

Who d ever thought for a moment,
She d have to grow up so fast,
School beauty queen with a child at sixteen,
Swore that her fortunes had passed.

[Pre-Chorus 2]

But blessings can hide in the strangest disguise,
I know that she would agree.

[Chorus]

As long as the rivers still run to the seas,
Hey lucky you lucky me,
Hey lucky you lucky me.

[Instrumental] (x3)

D, G, A, D

D, G, A

[Verse 3]

Hey look at me in the spotlight,
Ripped jeans and rock and roll hair,
Feeling so cool but I d be such a fool,
Singing to no one out there.

[Pre-Chorus 3]

So hey take a bow every band needs a crowd,
And I ve got a song we can sing.

[Chorus]

As long as the rivers still run to the seas,
Hey lucky you lucky me,
Hey lucky you lucky me,
Hey lucky you lucky me.

[Outro] (x6)

D, G, A, D

D, G, A

[Fade Out]
