She [D]left St. John s one [G]day in May dressed [D]in her Sunday [A]best
A [D]kind man sat be[G]side her and she [D]cried her way out west
She [D]moved in with her [G]cousin found a [D]job down in the [A]mall
Her [D]friends at home were [G]jealous said we ll [D]see you in the fall

But [D]you know that she [A]wants to try
[D]Never lets you [A]see her cry
[D]You know that she [A]wants to try
But [G]she s got [A]seagulls [D]in her eyes

REPEAT INTRO

The [D]people here seem [G]really nice but the [D]winter s way too [A]long
Her [D]new friends don t [G]understand they just [D]tell her to be strong
She [D]made some decent [G]money yeah but [D]nothing comes for [A]free
The [D]busy streets just [G]don t compete with the [D]sky, the rocks, and sea

CHORUS

INSTRUMENTAL: D A D A D A G A D

Her [D]parents came at [G]Eastertime they [D]wanted her to [A]stay
But she [D]went and got a [G]panel van, [D]moved home on her birthday
The [D]girls in town all [G]said she couldn t [D]make it on her [A]own
Now the [D]sky s a little [G]smaller and it [D]doesn t feel like home

CHORUS (x2)
