Great Lake Swimmers
She Comes to Me In Dreams

Capo 2

In the break, D is played in a somewhat abruptly manner with the use of a distinct stroke. You can play the A and G chords barred and focus on only strumming the bass notes of the chords. This is easier to play than the lighter riff that is more notable on the record. In live versions I've noticed that Tony Dekker plays it this way, and that Erik Arnesen typically plays the riff.

Feel free to comment if you discover anything that needs to be corrected.
