

Like A Dog
Greg Brown

Greg Brown - Like a Dog
transcribed by: robertdanielmaher@gmail.com

C

Like a dog, like a dog, I ve sat by your door,
Hoping for any scraps you might throw.
And I whine sometimes cause I need your love.
And I have loved you like a dog.

Like a dog, like a dog, I m always there,
While you are out gallivanting somewhere.
One little scratch means everything.
And I have loved you like a dog.

Maybe I shouldn t admit it.
Maybe I shouldn t have tried.
You want somethin , honey, I ll get it.
A dog is not burdened with pride.

Like a dog, like a dog, I leap with joy
When you call my name, call me a good boy.
I wish I had a dog s heart instead of this one.
For I have loved you like a dog.
I have loved you like a dog.