

What A Day
Greg Laswell

Em C
What a day to be alive
Em D C
What a day to realize I m not dead
Em C
What a day to save a dime
Em D C
What a day to die trying

Em C
what a way to say goodbye
Em D C
What a wonderful life now all aligned
Em C
What a way that you survive
Em D C
What a day to say goodnight

Am G D Am
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
G D Am
Bring on the evidence of my life
Am G D Am
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
G D G6
Bring on the evidence of my life
Em
Of my life

Em C
What a day to give a damn
Em D C
What a day for gone with the wind
Em C
What a day to start again
Em D C
What a day to give up dry gin

Am G D Am
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
G D Am
Bring on the evidence of my life
Am G D Am
Bring on the evening hours, I cry
G D G6
Bring on the evidence of my life
Em

Of my life

G

What a day to visit Seattle

Em

What a day for San Francisco

G

What a day, holy Toledo

Em

What a day to get in the air and go

G

What a day to give up smoking

Em

What a day to absorb Jim Beam and

G

Em

What a day to welcome a baby

G

Em G Em

And to begin breathing

G

What a day to visit Seattle

Em

What a day for San Francisco

G

What a day, holy Toledo

Em

What a day to get in the air and go

G

What a day to give up smoking

Em

What a day to absorb Jim Beam and

G

Em

What a day to welcome a baby

G

And to begin breathing

Em G Em G