Come And Go Blues
Gregg Allman

[Verse 1]

G7                      C#o                      Cm
  G*
People say   that you re no  good      But  I__ wouldn t cut you loose baby if I  could
G7                      C#o                 Cm                           G
I seem to stay   down on  the ground      Baby I m too far gone  to turn a-round
G7                      C#o                 Cm
  G
If only you     would make up your mind   To take me where you go   or leave me lay be - hind

[Chorus]

D                               F        C    G9      G  (see G riff)
   Woman you got those   come and go   blues      I swear you do
D                               F        C    G9      G
   Lord      you got those   come and go   blues
C*                        G C*        G7  C#o  Cm  G               G7  C#o
Cm   G
Oh, you got me feelin      like a fool_____         just like a fool
Mm mmm..

[Verse 2]

G7                      C#o                 Cm                             G
*
Round and round,   round we go,   don t ask me why I stay here  cos    I don t know
G7                      C#o                 Cm                             G
Maybe I m_    a fool to care       but without your sweet love     I would be no - where so
G7                      C#o                 Cm                           G
here I ll stay   locked in your web   Un-til that day__  I might find someone else

[Bridge]

   G7*         C#o*    F C                              G       (Descending G riff)
But  I____ don t know__        just when that will be G7*         C#o*    F C                             G9       G
But  I____ don t know__        I can t say  cos I can t see

[Verse 3]

G7                        C#o                   Cm                              G*
Sail on,       darlin , sail on        you just go your way,  and I ll go mine
    G7                        C#o                      Cm
G*
It seems to me,      that I once heard    That everything is finally cured by time
        G7                  C#o         Cm                                  G*
Darling, sail on,      baby, sail on    I just wish you good luck, and I ll see you when you come next time.

D                          F       C     G9     G  .
    Woman you got those   come and go    blues      oh you know, you do
D                              F       C     G9     G
    Lord       you got those   come and go    blues      mmm
C*              G C*                         (See outro riff)
  Got me feelin     like a fool_____                      just like a fool mm m
