

Soulgazing

Gregory and the Hawk

This isn't exactly how she plays it, but I think it sounds pretty good :)

Capo: 1st Fret

Verse: C#, Bbm, F#, G#

Chorus: Ebm, C#, Bbm, G#

I was doing fine missin the marks, missin the lines
And the days I would catch myself from fallin
you wanted all of that and more

Keep me, collect me
like the stones you would find on the beach
Tumble me smooth
you know it's some of that I need

Bleed

I was doing fine meeting my words according to time
But the poetry written to save me
you wanted all of that and more

Keep me, collect me
like the rare records on your shelf
Spin me at half speed I need some of that myself

Bleed

What are you fighting for?
(I was doing fine)
too sad I'm same as yours?
(and the days I would catch myself from fallin)
what are you fallin for?
(Keep me, collect me
like the stones you would find on the beach)
too sad I'm same as yours?
(Tumble me smooth
you know it's some of that I need)
