Angeline - Groove Coverage:

Am G
She never cried for love
C
She never knew
F C
how to deal with her broken heart
G
She was so blue
Am G C
only sweet seventeen
F C
when she left on a midnight train
just to be free
to feel so free

Chorus:

F Angeline life is not what it seems
open up your eyes runaway from your dreams
Angeline life is more than you see
Am
Paradise is not what you want it to be
Angeline there is more than you know
listen to your heart when there`s nowhere to go
Angeline dry your tears in the rain
Am
life is just a trip and it`s calling your name

She never cried a tear
She felt no pain
when she cut her life in pieces such a shame
eyes of blue -- wonderland
In the arms of a little girl so innocent

too innocent

Chorus:

Angeline life is not what it seems
open up your eyes runaway from your dreams
Angeline life is more than you see
Paradise is not what you want it to be

listen to your heart when there`s nowhere to go
Angeline dry your tears in the rain
life is just a trip and it`s calling your name

Bridge:

No you`re never gonna fade away
No you`re never gonna fade away
but it`s a lonely world for a lonely girl.....

Chorus:

Angeline life is not what it seems
open up your eyes runaway from your dreams
Angeline life is more than you see
Paradise is not what you want it to be

listen to your heart when there`s nowhere to go
Angeline dry your tears in the rain
life is just a trip and it`s calling your name

open up your eyes runaway from your dreams
Angeline life is more than you see
Paradise is not what you want it to be

Hope you like it
