[Verse 1]
                    E4/A
I crept from the soft dimension
Though one of my souls is lighter
It landed painfully
                 F#m
Into my big chance suit
                                        B11
                                 В
But I didn t really need it to stay away
[Verse 2]
Cause this is not my day
And nobody really cares
Any more anyhow
Nobody called again
Cause they said I m too lazy to stay alive
[Chorus]
D
                   B11

```
Every day it s another world
Е
      And every change of tomorrow
D
      Hungover and hungry to fix it
Е
    A miracle cure for my sorrows
With pillows of self-esteem
Alone in a satellite dream
But I can t forget about a world
                    E4/A
Where every beam I choose is shining alone on you
Shining alone on you, yeah
[Chorus]
                        B11
D
      Every day it s another world
Е
      And every change of tomorrow
D
      Hungover and hungry to fix it
Е
    A miracle cure for my sorrows
With pillows of self-esteem
Alone in a satellite dream
                           B11
But I can t forget about a world
                    E4/A
Where every beam I choose is shining alone on you
Shining alone on you, yeah
[Outro]
                 E4/A
Shining alone on you
Shining alone on you
Shining alone on you
