

Smothered In Hugs
Guided By Voices

F Gm
in the summer that you came Bb F
there was something eating everyone F Gm
and the sunshine fund was low
Bb
we couldn't greet you
F
with a simple hello

F Gm
and the watchers of the flood Bb F
were busy in their chambers
F Gm
making sure there was new blood
Bb F
to sustain their dying veins

F
but i believed you
C
no need for further questioning
Bbm
i m gonna leave with you
F
you can teach me all you know
F
which way will we go now
C on our trip to taller windows Bbm
i really don't know now F i really don't know

F Gm
in the winter that you left Bb
there was business as usual
F
with the same old fears and frustrations
F
but the word got out
it was really such a pity Gm

but the judges and the saints and the textbook committee

Bb

decided you should be left out not even mentioned

F

but i believed you

C

no need for further questioning

Bbm

i m gonna leave with you

F

you can teach me all you know

F

which way will we go now

C

on our trip to taller windows

Bbm

i really don t know now

F

i really don t know