Smothered In Hugs Guided By Voices

Gm

F Gm in the summer that you came F there was something eating everyone and the sunshine fund was low Bb we couldn t greet you F with a simple hello F Gm and the watchers of the flood Вb F were busy in their chambers Gm making sure there was new blood Вb to sustain their dying veins but i believed you no need for further questioning i m gonna leave with you you can teach me all you know which way will we go now on our trip to taller windows Bbm i really don t know now i really don t know in the winter that you left there was business as usual with the same old fears and frustrations but the word got out it was really such a pity but the judges and the saints and the textbook committee Bb decided you should be left out not even mentioned

F but i believed you
C no need for further questioning Bbm i m gonna leave with you F you can teach me all you know
F which way will we go now
C on our trip to taller windows Bbm

i really don t know now

i really don t know
