

Smothered In Hugs
Guided By Voices

G Am
in the summer that you came C G
there was something eating everyone
G Am
and the sunshine fund was low C
we couldn't greet you
G
with a simple hello

G Am
and the watchers of the flood C G
were busy in their chambers
G Am
making sure there was new blood
C G
to sustain their dying veins

G
but i believed you D
no need for further questioning
Cm
i m gonna leave with you
G
you can teach me all you know
G
which way will we go now D on our trip to taller windows
Cm
i really don't know now
G i really don't know

G Am
in the winter that you left
C
there was business as usual
G
with the same old fears and frustrations
G
but the word got out
it was really such a pity Am

but the judges and the saints and the textbook committee

decided you should be left out not even mentioned

G

but i believed you

D

no need for further questioning

Cm

i m gonna leave with you

G

you can teach me all you know

G

which way will we go now

D

on our trip to taller windows

Cm

i really don t know now

G

i really don t know
