

Little Bear
Guillemots

Little Bear by The Guillemots

An audacious song to start an album with! I think these chords are pretty much the real
If you're playing guitar, put a capo on the 4th fret to make your life easier.
I also included the real chords (no capo) for the pianists and those who lost their
Have fun

John from Borneo

Capo IV

C Em Dm
Little bear, little bear getting out of hand,
Dm (C)
getting out of hand I think I'm going to lose you now
C Em Am
Little bear, little bear you know me too well anyway
Em Dm
too well everyday I'm going home

C Em
I'm going beneath the stars; I'm going under the soil again
F C
And I won't be back in a long time so get out
Em Dm
Get out of this old house before I burn it down.
G
I wouldn't want to cause you anything
Am Em
That might break your lovely face in a thousand shattered China pieces
Dm C
In this bracken world of broken pieces

Here is exactly the same thing but without capo - if you want to play it on a piano

E G#m F#m
Little bear, little bear getting out of hand,
F#m (E)
getting out of hand I think I'm going to lose you now
E G#m C#m
Little bear, little bear you know me too well anyway
G#m F#m
too well everyday I'm going home

E

G#m

Iâ€™m going beneath the stars; Iâ€™m going under the soil again

A

E

And I wonâ€™t be back in a long time so get out

G#m

F#m

Get out of this old house before I burn it down.

B

I wouldnâ€™t want to cause you anything

C#m

G#m

That might break your lovely face in a thousand shattered China pieces

F#m

E

In this bracken world of broken pieces