Bm D G A (A A/G#)

I can see that it s just dust in the wind

Take hold my hand, and hold it tighter, ever tighter

You must believe that I love you still

But my strength, it grows weaker, and weaker

And my body has lost its will

Cause I have lied, and I have begged and I have cheated

And I know my ship, it won t be coming in

And as I lay me down to take my rest

I can see that it s just dust in the wind
