C#              Bbm                    Fm
Girl, you know I ve waited for this day
C#/F                      Ebm                        Bbm G#
I was stuck on a puzzle, I drowned in the pouring rain
C#                  Bbm                 Fm
You reached out to me, you showed me the way
C#/F                    Ebm                          Bbm G#
Your fears, like mine, they took the midnight train

( C#      Bbm      Fm      C#/F      Ebm      Bbm )

C#        Bbm                      Fm
Now so much of me is in your hands
C#/F        Ebm                      Bbm       G#
And my burden s is yours to hold, as yours is mine

C#/F
Call for me, my lover
          G#4              G#
When your nights are gone astray

Bbm                 C#                C#/F
Every now and then we ll need a savior
Ebm            C#                  G#
Every now and then we ll need a hand
Bbm                 C#                  C#/F
When you feel your bedroom walls a crumbling
Ebm              C#                      G#
Don t you dare to feel that you re alone, no

C#      Bbm      Fm    C#/F      Ebm      Bbm

C#                  Bbm                    Fm
You ve been there where light seems faraway
C#/F        Ebm                      Bbm
Your shadow behind me but I couldn t see
C#                Bbm                  Fm
Reaching out for something we don t know
C#/F          Ebm                    Bbm G#
Holding on to what we still don t have

C#/F
Call for me, my lover
