The Man and the Wolf
Gustavo Bertoni

Intro: C

C
Once upon a time,
                    Dm
A story of a man took place deep into the woods
     G   C
I heard   he lived all by himself, lost in his own mind
Dm   G
Hoping that he d find the reason for his vex
Am   Am7
Months went by
   D   D7   F   Fm   C
He pondered. oh God, oh why? he wondered

C
Searching in the past, memories that rest
Dm   G
Deeply in his veins while waiting for the light
C
To guide him to the river, the river of the wise
  Dm   G
A wolf hid in disguise and followed his every step
Am   Am7
Years went by
D   D7   F   Fm   C
He pondered. oh God, oh why? he wondered

F   C
From the distance he could smell the water
F   C
The wind whispered words of care
F   C
He smiled in joy hence he would get his answers
F   Fm   G   Bb7
As the wolf approached, it hesitated

C F (Dm G) C

G   C
  Behold a light in the dark!
             F
A new man now he faced
                Dm   G

```
With both feet on the water
                              C      G
No longer scared of its fangs

                   C
He invites the wolf in
                          F
Relating now with his fears
                   Dm      G
Reinventing his shadow
                        C
Shining joy in his tears

(C F Dm G C) Uma batida rápida em cada e deixa soar no final
```