The Man and the Wolf
Gustavo Bertoni

Intro: C#

C#
Once upon a time,
                  Ebm
A story of a man took place deep into the woods
     G#   C#
I heard   he lived all by himself, lost in his own mind
Ebm   G#
Hoping that he d find the reason for his vex
Bbm   Bbm7
Months went by
   Eb   Eb7   F#   F#m   C#
He pondered. oh God, oh why? he wondered

C#
Searching in the past, memories that rest
Ebm   G#
Deeply in his veins while waiting for the light
C#
To guide him to the river, the river of the wise
   Ebm   G#
A wolf hid in disguise and followed his every step
Bbm   Bbm7
Years went by
Eb   Eb7   F#   F#m   C#
He pondered. oh God, oh why? he wondered

F#   C#
From the distance he could smell the water
F#   C#
The wind whispered words of care
F#   C#
He smiled in joy hence he would get his answers
F#   F#m   G#   B7
As the wolf approached, it hesitated

C# F# (Ebm G#) C#

G#   C#
  Behold a light in the dark!
              F#
A new man now he faced
                 Ebm   G#

```
With both feet on the water
                        C#      G#
No longer scared of its fangs

                C#
He invites the wolf in
                    F#
Relating now with his fears
                Ebm     G#
Reinventing his shadow
                C#
Shining joy in his tears

(C F Dm G C) Uma batida rápida em cada e deixa soar no final
