

The Man and the Wolf
Gustavo Bertoni

Intro: D

D
Once upon a time,
Em
A story of a man took place deep into the woods
A D
I heard he lived all by himself, lost in his own mind
Em A
Hoping that he'd find the reason for his vex
Bm Bm7
Months went by
E E7 G Gm D
He pondered. oh God, oh why? he wondered

D
Searching in the past, memories that rest
Em A
Deeply in his veins while waiting for the light
D
To guide him to the river, the river of the wise
Em A
A wolf hid in disguise and followed his every step
Bm Bm7
Years went by
E E7 G Gm D
He pondered. oh God, oh why? he wondered

G D
From the distance he could smell the water
G D
The wind whispered words of care
G D
He smiled in joy hence he would get his answers
G Gm A C7
As the wolf approached, it hesitated

D G (Em A) D

A D
Behold a light in the dark!
G
A new man now he faced
Em A

With both feet on the water

D A

No longer scared of its fangs

D

He invites the wolf in

G

Relating now with his fears

Em A

Reinventing his shadow

D

Shining joy in his tears

(C F Dm G C) Uma batida rápida em cada e deixa soar no final