Just a perfect reflection you and no one else.

Verse:

```

Em           A7       C           G
Minutes run into hours, hours run into days
Em           A7       C           G
You re still waiting for someone who never ever came.

```

Chorus:

Em                A7                C                G
You were always sayin somethin, you swear you d never say again
Em                A7                C                D
You were always sayin somethin, you swear you d never say again
Em                A7                C                D
Em                A7                C                G

```

Verse:

```

Em                A7                C                G
Go and run through the hallways, and find your way to the door
Em                A7                C                G
You will end up like always, back where you were before.
Em                A7                C                G
Can you look in the mirror, wish you were somebody else
Em                A7                C                G

```

But it s still your reflection, you and no one else

Chorus:

```

Em                A7                C                G
You were always sayin somethin, you swear you d never say again
Em                A7                C                D
You were always sayin somethin, you swear you d never say again
Em                A7                C                D
Em                A7                C                G

```

```

Bridge:

```

Em                A7                C
No matter where you go, you ll never find your way home

```

Em A7 C
You ll never find your way home, no matter where you go
Em A7 C G
Oh.....
Em A7 C
Oh.....
