Riff One:

Handwriting practice sheet for the number 5. The page contains two sets of three horizontal dashed lines. The first set includes the number 5 written on the top line, followed by several dashed 5s for tracing. Below this, the number 7 is written on the top line, followed by several dashed 7s for tracing. The second set of lines includes the number 5 written on the top line, followed by several dashed 5s for tracing. Below this, the number 6 is written on the top line, followed by several dashed 6s for tracing. The page is designed to help children learn to write the numbers 5 and 6 by tracing and then practicing independently.

Riff Two:

Handwriting practice lines with numbers for tracing and counting. The numbers are placed on the top line of the four-line grid.
