

Two At A Time
Guster

Artist: Guster
Album: Keep It Together
Song: Two At A Time

Note: This is really just the bonus track (number 14) on Keep It Together. No name is listed, it is not named in the liner notes, but for our sanities sake we re just going to call it Two At A Time. It just makes sense. The intro, verses, and choruses are all the same chords, so we will just call that part A. The only difference is in the bridge, so we will call that part B.

Intro : F, Gm, C (repeat)

Verses: F, Gm, C (repeat)

Choruses: F, Gm, C (repeat)

Bridge: E, F, G, C

LYRICS

(PART A) Once upon A time,
For the Lord the skies they parted
So a few must die,
To bring us back to where we started

Two at a time,
two at a time,
two at a time,
two at a time,
do what you re told.

Each and every kind were gathered up,
This tiny boat, the future of the world
For those that drowned it made no sense,
They should have known, because we told them so

Two at a time,
two at a time,
two at a time,
two at a time,
do what you re told.

(PART B) I can see the rain s a comin
To wash away the filth and vermin,
Hand in hand we ll watch them runnin
On... *

(PART A)
Now it s summertime,
Long ago the skies they parted
So a few have died,
To bring us back to where we started

Two at a time,
two at a time,
two at a time,
two at a time,
do what you re told.

*At this point in the song, hold on C until you have to go right back into Part A.

Note: Just a few suggestions; I think that it is best to use barre chords as much as possible. I mean, I m not going to stop you from using regular open chords, but I just think that it is better to use barre chords, because it gives you a fuller sound that sounds a little bit better than open chords. Also, the first few bars of the song there is no guitar at all. It is just a little of drumming, and some weird sounds.

Have fun!
