

Dublin Blues
Guy Clark

Guy Clark is the man.
This is the title track from the Dublin Blues CD
Townes Van Zandt also cut a version of this song.

[Verse 1]

D G(add5) D
I wish I was in Austin

A
In the Chili Parlour Bar

D
Drinkin Mad Dog Margaritas

G D
And not carin where you are

D G(add5) D
But here I sit in Dublin

Just rollin cigarettes

D
Holdin back and chokin back

G D
The shakes with every breath

[Chorus]

A
Forgive me all my anger

D
Forgive me all my faults

A
There s no need to forgive me

D
For thinkin what I though

A
I loved you from the git go

D
I ll love you till I die

A
I loved you on the Spanish steps

G D
The day you said goodbye

[Verse 2]

(same as verse 1)

I am just a poor boy
Works my middle name
If money was a reason
I would not be the same

I ll stand up and be counted
I ll face up to the truth
I ll walk away from trouble
But I can t walk away from you

I have been to Fort Worth
I have been to Spain
I have been to proud
To come in out of the rain

I have seen the David
I ve seen the Mona Lisa too
I have heard Doc Watson
Play Columbus Stockade Blues

Repeat Chorus and end with the first verse again.
and that s all there is to it
