

Outbreak Of Vitas Gerulaitis
Half Man Half Biscuit

G D C Am D
Tedious people, tiresome town under the gaze of the mayoral frown
G D C Am D
Always calm with a gentle breeze - Tarkus in black vinyl please.
G C G
What would you do?
Am D G D C D
If the sexton s wife from the best kept village nearby came running
G D C D
With bells round her neck and said
Am D
You d better move away, tomorrow or today
G D C D G D C D
Cos when the owl starts laughing we will all fall down
Am D7 G D C D7
There s an outbreak of Vitas Gerulaitis on the way.

G D C Am D
Why it s Mr Kowalski - it was you all along
G D C Am D
That ski lodge would have been mine if it wasn t for you meddling kids.
G C G
But what can you do?
Am D
When your mum s in Rampton bouncing off the walls
G D C D G D C D
And singing Who s afraid of Virginia Wade?
Am D G D C D
Why do that today when you can always put it off until tomorrow?
G DCD G D C D
Was our motto, subsequently engraved on a plaque
G D C D7 G D C D
As a reminder of the attack of Vitas Gerulaitis.

G D C D G D C D
We all fall down, we all fall down,
G D C D G D C D
We all fall down, we all fall down,
G D C D G D C D
Who s afraid of Virginia Wade?
G D C D G D C D
Who s afraid of Virginia Wade?
Am D7 G D C D
An outbreak of Vitas Gerulaitis in the town
G DCD G DCD G D C
In the town, in the town, in the town
D G

We all fall down.
