

Prag Vec At The Melkweg
Half Man Half Biscuit

E In the town where I was born lived a man who went to work
E A F#m B

E And he told us of his life building spaceships on forty pounds a week.
E A E A

E And he d take us all for rides, and we d do some serious drugs in
E A E A

E On board the Enterprise Allowance we could do whatever we liked.
E A

E And we could go to a Meadowlark Lemon seminar,
E A

E Be at the Tony Monopoly incident,
E A

E Sort a strobe for Connie Plank,
E A E A (rpt instr)

E Shop around with Johnny Kwango.
E A

E If you would come with me to Dawlish
E A E A (rpt instr)

E I d be like Stadler s caddy for ya.
E A E A

E And we d return in time for tea and our dads would not have inklings
E A E

E Said we d been to organise a frisbee competition
A

E With the Gypsies down the road.
E A

E D ya wanna swap a hundred spandex overcoats
E A

E For the mental age of a haversack
E A E A E A (rpt instr)

E It s been like this since we saw PragVEC at the Melkweg.
B A

B Oh I doctored my edible thong with listeria
B A

B Now my only hope is that your offspring walks backwards
B A B A

E Just as I expected the shopkeeper appeared
E

E And then the band began to play.
