

Reflections In A Flat
Half Man Half Biscuit

(Intro C G C G)

C G
Oh darling sugar honey
C G
When it was nice and sunny
C G
And when I had some money
C G Am G F G
We would go and see Echo And The Bunny men.
C G
Since I was eight I've loved you
C G
Through garden gates I've shoved you
C G
Then there's the time I slashed you
C G Am G F G
And you had to go to hospital.
C G
Now you are gone forever
C G
Shot by your Uncle Trevor
C G
My story seems so tragic
C G Am G F G
Ali Bongo's good at contortionism.
Am G F E
Oh he's much better than David Nixon ever was
Am G F G Am G F G
Woh oh oh oo-oh.
C G
Slowly I picked my life up
C G
Now I go and pick the wife up
C G
She works at Marks & Spencer's
C G
La la la Lech Walesas.
C G
When Cupid threw her last dart
C G
You girl were still in my heart
C G
I love you more than ever
C G D D G
Even though I married Trevor.
