

Reflections In A Flat
Half Man Half Biscuit

(Intro C G C G)

C G
Oh darling sugar honey

C G
When it was nice and sunny

C G
And when I had some money

C G Am G F G
We would go and see Echo And The Bunny men.

C G
Since I was eight I've loved you

C G
Through garden gates I've shoved you

C G
Then there's the time I slashed you

C G Am G F G
And you had to go to hospital.

C G
Now you are gone forever

C G
Shot by your Uncle Trevor

C G
My story seems so tragic

C G Am G F G
Ali Bongo's good at contortionism.

Am G F E
Oh he's much better than David Nixon ever was

Am G F G Am G F G
Woh oh oh oo-oo.

C G
Slowly I picked my life up

C G
Now I go and pick the wife up

C G
She works at Marks & Spencer's

C G
La la la Lech Walesas.

C G
When Cupid threw her last dart

C G
You girl were still in my heart

C G
I love you more than ever

C G D D G
Even though I married Trevor.
