   C
I m bad at love
Got a girl with California eyes
And I thought that she could really be the one this time
But I never got the chance to make her mine
Because she fell in love with little thin white lines
London girl with an attitude
We never told no one but we look so cute
Both got way better things to do
But I always think about it when I m riding through
I believe, I believe, I believe
That I m in too deep
                                       Am
But jealousy, jealousy, jealousy, jealousy
Gets the best of me
Look, I don t mean to frustrate, but I
Always make the same mistakes, yeah
