      E          AWhen I was young, I fell in love      D EWe used to hold hands, man, that was enough (yeah)F#m E      AThen we grew up, started to touchD EUsed to kiss underneath the light on the back of the bus (yeah)F#m      E      AOh no, your daddy didn t like me much D      E      AAnd he didn t believe me when I said you were the one      F#m      E      A      DOh, every day she found a way out of the window to sneak out late      F#mShe used to meet me on the Eastside      E      A      DIn the city where the sun don t set      E      F#mAnd every day you know that we ride      E      A      DThrough the backstreets of a blue Corvette      E      F#m      EBaby, you know I just wanna leave tonightA      DWe can go anywhere we want      E      F#m EDrive down to the coast, jump in the seatA      DJust take my hand and come with meF#m      E      AWe can do anything if we put our minds to itD      E      ATake your whole life then you put a line through itF#m      E      AMy love is yours if you re willing to take itD      E      AGive me your heart cause I ain t gonna break itF#m      E      ASo come away, starting todayD      E      AStart a new life, together in a different place      F#m      E      AWe know that love is how these ideas came to be      D      ESo baby, run away with meF#m      E      A      DSeventeen and we got a dream to have a family      EA house and everything in between      F#m      E      AAnd then, oh, suddenly we turned twenty-three      D      ENow we got pressure for taking our life more seriously      F#m      E AWe got our dead-end jobs and got bills to payD EHave old friends and know our enemies      F#m      E ANow I-, I m thinking back to when I was young      DBack to the day when I was falling in love      F#mHe used to meet me on the Eastside      E      A      DIn the city where the sun don t set      E      F#mAnd every day you know that we ride
