Hank Green

I [G]just made a discovery that [D]may change my [C]life While I was [G]clicking through this new-fangled [D]facebook [C]site It s a place where I can live the life I ve always dreamed without really ever doing any[G]thing which is [C]good because I don t like doing [G]things Now my [D]life isn t so important to [G]me since there s an[D]other place I d much rather [D]be

[G]down on the [C]farm where the [C]sky is always [G]blue and we [G]never kill the [D]pigs and the [G]cows never poo and [G]everything s a[C]dorable and I know every[G]one and we can [G]plant any[C]thing under this [G]never-setting sun oh it [C]hasn t gotten old and I hope it never [G]will let me intro[C]duce you to my new home.

I drag my ragged ass to work, yeah I can barely lift my feet I m operating on about four hours sleep I was up all night growing food to feed the world just me and an army of girls friendless twelve year-old girls The boss throws me a pile of work without so much as a hello and suddenly I know exactly where I wanna go

[G]down on the [C]farm where the [C]sky is always [G]blue
and we [G]never kill the [D]pigs and the [G]cows never poo
and [G]everything s a[C]dorable and I know every[G]one
and we can [G]plant any[C]thing under this [G]never-setting sun
oh it [C]hasn t gotten old
and I hope it never [G]will
let me intro[C]duce you to my new home.

In the last few months I ve become a millionaire This is so much more exciting than playing solitaire I ve got an oddly-shaped house, that I couldn t fit inside And animals that will never die no matter how much I neglect them they re alive It might not be real life, but I don t really mind There s no other place where I d prefer to spend my time than

[G]down on the [C]farm where the [C]sky is always [G]blue
and we [G]never kill the [D]pigs and the [G]cows never poo
and [G]everything s a[C]dorable and I know every[G]one
oh it [C]hasn t gotten old

and I hope it never [G]will
let me intro[C]duce you to my new home.
