

Lonesome For You
Hank Williams III

I don t need nobody to call me on the phone
I don t need no company, I d rather be alone
I m just happy by myself here bein blue
I m not lonely I m just lonesome for you

When my friends come I don t care if they stay
When they talk to me, I don t care what they say You re still gone so darlin there ain t nothin new
I m not lonely I m just lonesome for you

I ll just be lonesome without you here
cause there ain t noone I love like you dear
Thinkin of you is all I ever do
I m not lonely I m just lonesome for you

Any comfort I find these days is small Everybody tries but nothing helps at all
They d just give up before they started if they knew that I m not lonely, I m just lonesome for you

I ll just be lonesome without you here
cause there ain t noone I love like you dear
Thinkin of you is all I ever do
I m not lonely I m just lonesome for you

I m not lonely I m just lonesome for you
