

Smoke And Wine
Hank Williams III

This is the slow solo version from the untitled track on the straight to hell album

Tabbed by: Our Friend Whitey (Whiteness-is)

Intro: E E E E

E

Well, I aint got money but I am doin fine.

E

just a hillbilly hell-raiser killin time.

E

An I m lookin for a gal about five foot ten.

E

An I m gonna take her down that road of sin.

A

we re drinkin , druggin havin fun.

E

and I like to carry round my loaded shotgun.

A

If I think I m gonna have a bad time,

X

E

I got a little bit of smoke an a whole lotta wine.

Instrumental Break: E E E E

E

Well i had a good friend thought she d be my bride

E

but i just wasnt good enough for her kind

E

she broke my heart and she killed my soul

E

but she needed more dick down music row

A

I never thought that gal of mine

E

would ever leave me hangin for a new kind of guy

A

then i saw she was just a fake

X

E

So im sittin here drinkin by the old cow gate

E
well im gonna have a good time saturday night
E
even though my gal left me for that other guy
E
i dont really care if you hate me you see
E
cause im just a country boy from tennessee

A
a little bit crazy on the rowdy side

E
and i like to drink whiskey and i like to get high

A
cruise in to town about half past four

X E E E E
with a little bit of whiskey and my worn out whore

X E E E E
with a little bit of whiskey and my worn out whore