The Things We Used To Do Hank Williams III

E B

Well you never took my heart when I tried hard to give it to you

Е

And I know you can't be true cause you just wanna be roamin free

Α

Now I see you with another and I'm mad as I can be

3

So I sit right here and have just one more damn misery.

E B

Well I'm fallin drunk again I guess she must have got to me

Ε

I don't usually let a woman get an upper hand on me

Α

Now I'm lost and now I'm broke and I ain't got nothin to lose

B E

But I still sit here and thing about The Things We Used to do.

E B E A B E

E 1

Now Iâ \in mm driftin through another town just as lon-ely as I can be

I can't believe I let that woman get an upper hand on me

Α

Cause now Iâ \in mm lost and now Iâ \in mm broke and I ainâ \in mt got nothin to lose

But I still sit here and thing about The Things We Used to do.

B E

But I still sit here and thing about The Things We Used to do.