

Building Memories

Hank Williams Jr.

G C
I don t have to tell you what I ve got on my mind
D C G
Cause you already know it, you can see it in my eyes
G C
After the night is over and the morning you ll set me free
D C D G
And I ll be remembering while your forgettin me

C D G C
Cause tonight you re going love me like you ve known me all of your life
G C D
Yes tonight your gonna make me feel alright
C D G C
But I m just another page in your book broken dreams
G D C D G
And you re my cornerstone for building memories

Tomorrow is a lonely world for you and me to face
Trying in desperation just to make it through the day
If I can stay half sober and you would even change
Together we can make it we only us to blame

Chorus

Yes you re my corner stone for building memories
