

Texas Women
Hank Williams Jr.

Intro: D

Verse:

D A
I ve got some fond memories of San Angelo
D
And I ve seen some beauty queens in El Paso
G
But the best lookin women that I ve ever seen
D A D
Have all been in Texas, and all wearin jeans
G D A D
I m a country plowboy not a urban cowboy
G D E A
And I don t ride bulls, but I have fought some men
G D A D
Drive a pickup truck trust in God and luck
G D C A D
And I live to love Texas women

Verse: (same as the first)

I thought I d seen beauty in far away places
Til I looked upon those Houston faces
Spent Hollywood nights up in Beverly Hills
But they weren t nothin like one night down in Brownsville

Chorus:

Key change to E

E B
I m a pretty fair judge of the opposite sex
E
And I ain t seen nothin that will touch em yet
A
They may be from Waco or out in Lampasas
E B E
But one thing about it they all come from Texas

Chorus:

Bridge:

A E B E
I m an Oilier fan not a soccer man
A E F B
And my arms are red and so is my blood
A E B E

And they make it boil with that soft Texas drawl

A                    E                    D B E

And I love em all Texas women
