Glimpses of Your glory

B

All creation breathes

Only one could stand behind

C#m B

The beauty before me

The further I fall into You, the further I can go

The more I know about You Lord, the more I want to know

I've only seen a glimpse

All I've had are moments

It's enough, oh, it's enough

I can't see it all

But the mystery is holy

I've only seen a glimpse
