followed by a heat wave
G D G A
Rush hour just began and I ran for my life
A D
See I can t afford to miss the buss or
F#m
I ll go and miss all the fuzz
Bm A cos this time it s a must
A G D
I ll go meet the boys and Suzie
G A
I just can t miss her tonight.
A D
And I m so hot
F#m Bm
Gee, I m so hot

D A
Well is she tight, is she in Bm A
a need of a lover like me
A G
Oh, there she is now
G D G A
I gotta go and give her a great big kiss
D
And now that I m in her
F#m
I don t wanna lose her Bm A G
these moments are taking me off to heaven

G D
but they don't seem to take her

G A
Anywhere at all

D
I wonder what went wrong

F#m Bm
Please, tell me what went wrong
A | D | F#m | Bm | A |

Bm G Bm A G
Remember all the nights we wrote it on the walls that punks never die
Bm G Bm A G A
Hot love in the nights and days we spent underground underground

Accidents happen about every day

Bm
and that days was special

A G
coz Peter was taken away

G D G A
and Suzie she moved to another town.

A D F#m
So here I am all alone in this summer heat

Bm A
looking at the empty street

A G D
all there is left is the writing on the wall.

G A D
I wonder where all the 11th street kids are today

F#m Bm
where have they all gone
A | D | F#m | Bm | A |
