

Hey
Hanson

[Intro:] D C G C9

          D                  C                  G                  C9 D
And I say: Hey, when I m making my movie, baby
          C                  G                                  D
You keep saying all my, you keep braking all my...

          C                  G C9 D
Hey, you like boots and perfume
                                  C                  G C9 D
Hey, your red pumps and your Cadillac blues
          C                  G                  C                  G
Hey, you want that fine white wine on my dime

          A                  C                  G
What you want from me
Cause you re on my mind
          A                  C                  G
Don t you care no more
That you re losing yourself
          A                  C                  G
Don t you want some truth
Cause I ll give you mine

          D                  C                  G                  C9 D
Hey, when I m making my movie, baby
          C                  G          C9 D
You keep saying all my lines
          C                  G                                  C9 D
Hey, after Sunset Drive cruising, baby
          C                  G
You re just yesterdays prize
                                  F          G          D
You re just yesterdays prize, Hey, Hey

Hey, do do do do
You want trips on a white yacht for two
Hey, you want Beverly Heights, bright lights, late nights

Your red pumps and your Cadillac blues
You want trips on a white yacht for two
Your red pumps and your Cadillac blues
You like boots and expensive perfume
