

Sunlight

Harlem Shakes

This is a great song by a great band, I couldn't ever find any chords or tabs so I figured this one out for myself, I hope it's right. I know I'm missing the bridge but I couldn't quite figure it out so if you can, just comment on this. Listen to the song for the strumming patterns they're pretty easy.

F C

I had a coat of many colors

F C

Sold it off online

F Am

And now I duck my older brothers

F C

Neath a long leaf pine

F C

Well I did what I thought I was supposed to do

F C

All I sang so close to true

F Am

Now they wanna know what really means the most to you

F C

Means the most to you

G

Ba ba ba

F C

Sunlight, sunlight baby

Em

Am

We just let go of the night now slowly

F C

We won't dance, we won't sing, we won't talk

Em

Am

We just gonna watch how it bends

That's the pretty much the whole song, besides the bridge that is, I couldn't figure out sorry.
GOOD LUCK
