

Berkeley Girl
Harper Simon

Artist: Harper Simon

Song: Berkeley Girl      Tabbed by Roj Vincent

Tuning: Capo on third fret

Intro:           C    F    G    C

C	F	G
She is juniper and roses

C

She is amethyst and pearl

F G

And though she makes her home in Hollywood

c

She s really just a Berkeley girl

	F	G
She s the breeze on Sunday morning

Blowin down the country lane

She s got the style of Paulette Goddard

c

And the smile of Joan Fonteyne

G7	Dm
And she drives a	Carmen Ghia

Through the streets of Silver Lake

G
And the hills of Echo Park

C	F	G
She is crinoline and satin

C

She is leopard skin and lace

F G

Hard to believe that she believed in me

C

When I was such a hopeless case

F G

And she knows from love and service

C

Yes she knows from peace of mind

F G

To be not sinister in purpose

C

And to never be unkind

G7 Dm

And she loves a Tulsi garden

G7 Dm

And she loves her rock and roll

G

And she s never far from my mind

No.....

C F G

She is juniper and roses

C

Guess I ll say it once again

F G

And though we are no longer lovers

C

I know she ll always be my friend

F G

So if you ever ride beside her

C

Travellin down the one " oh " one

F

G

Be thankful that you re with a Berkeley girl

C

Who s beautiful beneath the moon and the sun

C

F

C

Ahaaaa.....Ahaaaa.....Ahaaa.....ah.....ah

C

F

G

Ahaaaa.....Ahaaaa.....Ahaaa.....ah.....ah

Mmmmmmmmm.....

Ahaaaaa.....Berkeley girl

Not too sure about the G7, but please say if you have a better chord fit...:-)

Harper Simon is Paul Simon s son and her s a link to his web site:

<http://harpersimon.com/>

Cheers.....