

Berkeley Girl
Harper Simon

Artist: Harper Simon

Song: Berkeley Girl Tabbed by Roj Vincent

Tuning: Capo on third fret

Intro: Bb Eb F Bb

Bb Eb F
She is juniper and roses

Bb
She is amethyst and pearl

Eb F
And though she makes her home in Hollywood

Bb
She s really just a Berkeley girl

Eb F
She s the breeze on Sunday morning

Bb
Blowin down the country lane

Eb F
She s got the style of Paulette Goddard

Bb
And the smile of Joan Fonteyne

F7 Cm
And she drives a Carmen Ghia

F7 Cm
Through the streets of Silver Lake

F
And the hills of Echo Park

Bb Eb F
She is crinoline and satin

Bb

She is leopard skin and lace

Hard to believe that she believed in me

When I was such a hopeless case

And she knows from love and service

Yes she knows from peace of mind

To be not sinister in purpose

And to never be unkind

And she loves a Tulsi garden

And she loves her rock and roll

And she s never far from my mind

No.....

She is juniper and roses

Guess I ll say it once again

And though we are no longer lovers

I know she ll always be my friend

So if you ever ride beside her

Travellin down the one " oh " one

Eb

Be thankful that you re with a Berkeley girl

Bb

Who s beautiful beneath the moon and the sun

Bb

Eb

Bb

Ahaaaa.....Ahaaaa.....Ahaaa.....ah.....ah

Bb

Eb

Mmmmmmmmm.....

Ahaaaa.....Berkeley girl

Not too sure about the G7, but please say if you have a better chord fit...:-)
