

Berkeley Girl
Harper Simon

Artist: Harper Simon

Song: Berkeley Girl Tabbed by Roj Vincent

Tuning: Capo on third fret

Intro: B E F# B

B	E	F#
She is juniper and roses

B

She is amethyst and pearl

And though she makes her home in Hollywood

B

She s really just a Berkeley girl

She s the breeze on Sunday morning

Blowin down the country lane

She s got the style of Paulette Goddard

B

And the smile of Joan Fonteyne

F#7 C#m
And she drives a Carmen Ghia

F#7 C#m
Through the streets of Silver Lake

F#
And the hills of Echo Park

B	E	F#
She is crinoline and satin

B

She is leopard skin and lace

E F#

Hard to believe that she believed in me

B

When I was such a hopeless case

E F#

And she knows from love and service

B

Yes she knows from peace of mind

E F#

To be not sinister in purpose

B

And to never be unkind

F#7 C#m

And she loves a Tulsi garden

F#7 C#m

And she loves her rock and roll

F#

And she s never far from my mind

No.....

B E F#

She is juniper and roses

B

Guess I ll say it once again

E F#

And though we are no longer lovers

B

I know she ll always be my friend

E F#

So if you ever ride beside her

B

Travellin down the one " oh " one

E

F#

Be thankful that you re with a Berkeley girl

B

Who s beautiful beneath the moon and the sun

B

E

B

Ahaaaa.....Ahaaaa.....Ahaaa.....ah.....ah

E

F#

Ahaaaa.....Ahaaaa.....Ahaaa.....ah.....ah

Mmmmmmmmm.....

Ahaaaaa.....Berkeley girl

Not too sure about the G7, but please say if you have a better chord fit...:-)
