G            A4        D
Goodbye to radio

Am   Em            D                    C
Goodbye to the things that we know

And calculate passages
And bloom like a tiger lily in july

C   B*   Am   Am   Am/E
And Lovers will die

Am   D*/F#            G                    D/F#                    C and lovers will rise past the darkness we ve seen

so stop telling lies
and start falling blind in the deepest of seas salvaged by wondering weighed down by tears that you wish you could cry and i want to make love with you spread you so wide like the bluest of nights

and lovers will die

so stop telling lies and start falling blind in the deepest of seas interlude *arpeggios used*

e	-----
b	-----
g	--2---2---2---2----- d	--2---3---2---3-----37--25--03----- a|-3---3---2---2---03-5---3---1-----|

e|5---5---3---3---1-----|

from here on the song continues but in the key of A instead of G (so either do bar chords which work fine or get a capo on the second fret fast)

and lovers will die
and lovers will rise past the darkness we ve seen

so stop telling lies
and start falling blind in the deepest of seas

*repeat*
