

The Ground We Stand On Hawksley Workman

This is the studio version from the album MEAT

D A
It s so cold here and I miss you.

Bm
And I can t help feeling broken.

D A
I treat myself like I m not fragile.

Bm
Like there s no care to be taken.

D A
And I was up last night just thinking

Bm
A hundred reasons to be sorry.

D A
Why don t you come and lay beside me

Bm
Since there s too much now that s vacant.

*REFF:

G D
And oh the time that we keep wasting,

A
Like we don t know

Bm
The joy that s hard to bear.

G D
For the ground that we stand on

A
Won t long be there.

D A
I pray that we will never tire

Bm
Of the work that lies before us.

D A
I feel that I will be the weak one

Bm
And that you will have to carry me.

D A
I hope there never is a phone call

Bm
To say that it s too dark to keep trying.

D A
I hope there s time left to discover

Bm

How to cry at all the beauty.

Interlude: D A Bm (2x)

*Back to REFF

D A

I guess it s me there in the mirror

Bm

But I can t say that I know him.

D A

When you tell me that you love me

Bm

There s no reason I should doubt you.
