

Footprints In The Sand
Headlights West

E Am
I was your Romeo by the ocean, you were my Juliet of the sea
E Am
The moonlight sparkled in your eyes and danced on the waves in front of me
E Am
Your blonde hair blowin' in the wind drove a teenage boy half wild
E Am
All I knew to do was just fuel that fire deep inside

Chorus:

F C
And every now and then I see your footprints in the sand
Dm A
Feel your lips upon my own and I'm reaching for your hand

F C
Just too soon I realize those yesterdays are gone
Dm A
Time is full of broken dreams and my, how time has flown

Bm D A D
What I'd give to make all of my yesterdays tomorrow
Bm D A D
Seems that when the tide goes out, my soul will surely follow
