As it was before shall it ever, ever be
Hear it on the crying wind, hear it weeping on the sea
Through the winter valley wild and through the darkest night
Here comes the evil news of the coming fight, yeah

So love, bring your birds, bring your feathers of peace
                                    D   G D
All through the storm let the tides release, yeah yeah yeah
