

Under The Sky Heart

VERSE:

What a day you had today. It took your smile away
I think we ought to get away, let s run away.
Take me out under the sky, counting diamonds all through the night.
And the moon in the morning light, out under the sky.
And it can happen any day, everything goes astray
But the stars do us ok, let s run away.

CHORUS:

Hey hey yeah yeah
Hey hey yeah yeah
Hey hey yeah yeah
It s alright, let it go. Shake the world off your shoulders.
You have the perfect alibi, just because the world is wide out under the sky...
Hey Hey.....

When all is said and done darling we are the only ones, there s only you and I out under the sky. Under the sky mmmm out under the sky.
