

Be So Happy
Heartless Bastards

*****

This is a pretty straight-forward song to play.
The early verses are simply going between an E and an E7 chord.
Listen to the track and you'll hear it.
Eventually, they add in a Bm and an A, but watching them perform it live, they use Bm barred at the 7th fret and the A barred at the 5th.

Intro: E, E7, E, E7, E, E7

E E7

I could be so happy

E E7

if I just quit being sad

E E7

I could be so funny

E E7

If I just quit being a drag

E E7

I could be so sweet

E E7

if I just quit being sour

E E7

I could do all these things

E E7

Oh, I have the power

E E7

I m gonna see what tomorrow brings

E E7

I m gonna make it to the midnight train

E E7

I m gonna see what tomorrow brings

E E7

I m gonna take it to the world outside

(REPEAT INTRO, THEN SAME AS ABOVE)

So I took off running
I ran over the hills
My odyssey through concrete and steel
Gonna keep on going
I don t wanna stand still
Gonna keep on going
I don t wanna stand still

I m gonna see what tomorrow brings
I m gonna make it to the midnight train
I m gonna see what tomorrow brings
I m gonna take it to the world outside

(REPEAT INTRO)

E
I am going out into

Bm                    A                    E
I m going out to the sweet unknown

E
I m going out into

Bm                    A                    E
I m going out to the sweet unknown

E                                    E7
Oh, I m Longing to be

E
Oh, I m Longing to be

Bm                    A                    E
Out in the sweet unknown

E                                    E7
Oh, I m Longing to be

E
Oh, I m Longing to be

Bm                    A                    E
Out in the sweet unknown

Bm                    A                    E
Out in the sweet unknown

Bm                    A                    E
Out in the sweet unknown

Bm                    A                    E
Out in the sweet unknown
